

PLAN IT NATIVE

LANDSCAPES CONFERENCE

JOIN US IN PERSON FEBRUARY 10-11, 2026, IN KANSAS CITY

The 2026 Plan It Native Landscapes Conference, hosted by Deep Roots and its partners, will offer more than 20 live, in person sessions, two inspiring keynote speakers, and opportunities to connect with peers and other sponsors in person. Plan It Native sessions offer expert advice for landscapes small to large. Previous conference attendees include municipalities, parks departments, landscape architects, conservation agencies, landscapers, nurseries, non-profit organizations, students, educators, and home gardeners. Past attendees said:

“Great speakers—especially loved the union of science with action and hope.”

“High quality vendors with interesting displays. Loved their enthusiasm!”

“Plan It Native is always inspiring to attend.”

Sponsoring this event builds visibility for your brand, connects you with potential customers, and provides a forum to highlight your commitment to habitat restoration through native plants.
